Fall Clothing For Men

We are now showing a beautiful line of Fall Clothing for men. So there is no need of buying a summer suit when you can buy a fall suit of a leading style at this store. The clothes we sell are good clothes. The Fabrics, Patterns and Tailoring appeals to men who like good looking clothes and clothes that wear well. This season we are going to lead in men's clothing. We are going to sell good clothes at the same price you pay for ordinary clothes elsewhere. A dollar's worth of goods for a dollar is our slogan.

Adler's Overcoats.

They are the best made in America. This is conceded by the men on the road whose opinions carry weight with the purchasing public. After satisfying ourselves that the above assertion is true, we purchased their line and it is here for your approval. This cut shows a 52 inch coat, nobby and dressy for this fall. In Black, Grey and Brown, in Men's, Youths', Boys' and Little Gents.

Hugh Ferguson has sold his auto to a party in Port Huron.

Mrs. E. R. Beecher was confined to the house the first of the week with the gripe.

Nathaniel Kerr has purchased a 1909 model Buick touring car. It was delivered Wednesday.

Tomorrow evening is Halloween. Secure your movable property or it may be secured by others.

Fred Currie was operated on in Flint three weeks ago for appendicitis. He is able to be around again but is still weak.

J. F. Beier went to Ann Arbor for treatment Monday morning. He was accompanied by Dr. Wm. R. Yuill of Yale.—Richmond Review.

Frank Kerr has sold out his creamery at Lum and has associated himself with his father Nathaniel Kerr in the general merchandise business here.

Rev. Walter Simms preached in the Cole church last Sunday morning and evening. The church was crowded and all pronounced the sermon very fine.

The State Teachers Association is in session in Saginaw Thursday and Friday of this week. Yale schools are closed while the teachers are in attendance.

The city officials wish to warn all persons from tacking signs to the electric light poles. It is against the ordinances of the city and must be stopped.

Guy Mulnyx was elected delegate to the Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows held in Lansing last week. During his absence, John Conroy attended to the sprinkler.

A marriage license was issued to Samuel Levagood, aged 74, and Beatrice Starks, aged 51, both of Greenwood. Both have experienced matrimony before.

There will be a Republican Rally in Mrs. McKinney's Hall, Old Broadway, this evening. Alex. Moore and Shirley Stewart will be the principal speakers. Everybody cordially invited to attend.

Ed. Oatman purchased a drug and jewelry store in New Baltimore on Thursday of last week and took immediate possession. He has gone there to live. We wish Ed. all kinds of success in his new venture.

Chas. J. Tarte, candidate for register of deeds on the democratic ticket, and Elmer Stockwell, candidate for prosecuting attorney on the same ticket, were callers at the Expositor office while in Yale Wednesday morning.

The good work of decorating the shows windows in this style is continuing. N. Kerr & Son's window presents a very neat appearance with its showing of advance styles of Queen Quality shoes. We are glad to note such enterprise.

Mrs. T. St. George Eades, vocal teacher of Port Huron, has been engaged to instruct the choirs of the Presbyterian and Methodist Episcopal churches. Mrs. Eades has a fine large class besides. She is an excellent teacher and deserves all kinds of success.

The official ballot to be voted at next Tuesday's election 21x28 inches in size and contains 194 names. The tickets are in the following order: Republican, Democrat, Prohibition, Socialist party, Socialist Labor party, Independent party, and United Christians.

The Delta Lambda Club is devoting a large amount of time to their play, "The Stoops to Conquer". Work is progressing rapidly and the different parts are being committed to memory. When completed this will be one of the best plays ever given by an amateur theatrical club in Yale.

Andrew Currie's hay stack near his barn burned to the ground about eight o'clock Friday evening. The stack contained over 14 tons of hay. It is a mystery to all how the fire originated. The fire fighters had hard work to keep the fire away from the buildings, but succeeded in doing so after a heroic battle.

A new industry has been commenced in our city. Harry Williams, formerly employed in the P. M. Station here, but lately of Carlton, has rented the rooms next to John Hutton's store and will start a canvas glove factory. He intends to install a number of machines and to employ five girls. This ought to be a paying industry as gloves are always in demand.

Andrew O'Rourke has resigned as superintendent of the light and water plant here and has accepted a similar position in Richmond. Roswell Green formerly assistant, has been appointed as superintendent in Mr. O'Rourke's place. Andy has had charge of the plant here for the past two years and is a first-class man. We wish him all kinds of success in his new position.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church will give a supper in the dining room of the church on Saturday evening, beginning to serve at five o'clock. Chicken, cold meat, hot mashed potatoes, and all the accompanying good things to make up a big supper, may be had for 25c. Everybody is cordially invited. Special effort will be made to serve the business men quickly. Come all.

Rev. P. H. Case, of Stockbridge, occupied the pulpit of the Presbyterian church last Sunday morning and evening. Rev. Case is one of the best talkers ever heard from the Presbyterian pulpit. His morning discourse was on "The Inner Circle," and his evening sermon, a character sketch of Peter. Both sermons were instructive and pleasing. Rev. Case came as a candidate for the pastorate here and we believe that he would make an excellent pastor.

The Melvin Gazette throws the following hot shot at our fair city. Unless Brother Patterson takes it back our citizens will go to Melvin in a body and literally "paint his print shop red."

"Mr. Billings may possibly buy in Yale, but we imagine he would prefer to live in Melvin." We don't know who Mr. Billings is, but we imagine he doesn't know a good thing when he sees it, if the above statement is correct.

Last week there was begun in the Expositor one of the cleverest humorous stories ever written, "Mr. Pratt." It is by Joseph Lincoln, whose stories are always found at the top of the selling list and this is one of his best. If you wish to be well and enjoyably entertained this coming winter read "Mr. Pratt." You will have many a hearty laugh over Mr. Pratt's quaint humor, expressed as only Mr. Lincoln can express it.

During the past year several articles have been found and left at the Expositor office, but up to date owners have not called for same. In the collection is a heavy sheepskin glove and would be of value to the owner who has the mate to it; a lady's fur neck scarf; a child's neck scarf and a hand bag with a small sum of money in it. All of these articles will come in handy this winter. Owners will please call and get their belongings.

Last Sunday was delegate electing day in the Presbyterian church. Mrs. James Wallace was elected delegate from the Sunday School to attend the district convention in Port Huron which was held Thursday. Sarah McKenzie was elected to represent the S. FARMERS ATTENTION POULTRY WANTED

The C. J. Roberts Co. will load a car load of poultry at Yale in November and again in December. Present outlook indicates better prices for November and December.

If you have any poultry to sell please let us know about how many head you will have for our November car. This insures you a direct quotation and delivery date by mail. At the same time you incur no obligations whatever, and do not bind yourself in any way to deliver your poultry to us.

Our object is to let our friends know that we will positively load in November and again in December and to try and get some idea of the number of cars we will need, as we intend to take every pound offered. We assure you the same square deal we have always given you and would like to hear from you as early as possible.

We have established a temporary headquarters at the Irwin House, Bad Axe, Mich., and certainly want to hear from all of our friends just as early as possible.

Yours truly

The C. J. Roberts Company.
